The Potty Fairy Parent Potty Training Tips

for potty training success

- Introduce the potty, as early as possible, before potty training begins.
- Watch your child for developmental readiness to determine when to start.
- Select a time period for potty training that works for you.
- Select a potty training method that makes sense to you and your lifestyle.
- Use The Potty Fairy book to introduce potty training.
- Learn the Potty Fairy song, make-up a dance for when your child is successful.
- Keep a potty chair in the car.
- Keep a progress chart and let the Potty Fairies leave stickers for the chart.
- Give attention to successes, not accidents. The fairies can leave surprise rewards for your child when things are going well!
- Leave notes from the fairies to encourage and support.
- Provide your child with a "potty buddy". Bud and Blossom are great buddy options.
- Prompt the use of the potty chair, rather than asking your child if they need to go.
- Purchase underwear a size up from what your child wears and have the Potty Fairies deliver them at night when you child sleeps.
